Panaji, 26th June, 1979.

Rules for the grant of awards to persons contracting intercaste marriages either of the parties being a scheduled caste

With a view to assist persons placed under hard circumstances owing to contracting intercaste marriages and to eradicate the evil of casteism the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu is pleased to sanction the following scheme of awards to persons contracting intercaste marriages, either of the parties being a Scheduled Caste.

SCHEME

1. Financial assistance as monetary grant not exceeding Rs. 2,000/- will be available to persons contracting intercaste marriages either of the parties being a Scheduled Caste person and is payable only after the marriage is taken place.

2. The grant under this scheme cannot be claimed as a matter of right. The Director of Social Welfare, Panaji, subject to availability of funds will decide and sanction the case of persons applying for such assistance depending upon the merits of each case.

3. Persons seeking such assistance should apply to the Block Development Officer, in the form prescribed (Appendix I). The application shall be signed by both the wife and the husband and should be accompanied by following documents: —

a) A certificate bearing office seal from the Sub-Registrar of the Registration Department showing that the marriage has been registered in his office.

b) A certificate showing the community to which the wife and the husband belong to, from any Gazetted Officer of the State Government in case of non-Scheduled Castes and from the authorised officer in case of Scheduled Castes.

c) A certificate from the Block Development Officer as in Appendix II to the effect that both the husband and wife are living together for not less than one year.

4. Bonafides of the applicant will be enquired into by the Block Development Officer, and the enquiry report along with his remarks and the application shall be forwarded to Director of Social Welfare for consideration.

5. Grant sanctioned under the scheme should be utilised for starting a business or purchase of land or construction of a house or any capital investment from which beneficiaries could derive a recurring income for their maintenance.

6. After the assistance is sanctioned by the Directorate of Social Welfare the Block Development Officer will disburse the money subject to the parties concerned executing an agreement as in Appendix III with sureties binding themselves to utilise the money for the purpose for which it is sanctioned.

7. The money sanctioned should be utilised within 3 months from the date it is disbursed except in the case of grant for house construction for which a maximum period of six months is allowed, for the purpose for which it is sanctioned, failing which the entire amount will be liable for recovery in lumpsum from the grantees as if it is arrears of land revenue.

8. If a person who has received the grants contracts another marriage after dissolution of the first marriage on account of which he/she availed such grant he/she will not be again eligible for the grant on account of the second marriage.

9. Financial assistance shall be available only to the persons whose annual income from all sources does not exceed Rs. 5,000/- (Rupees five thousand only).
